Welcome

- With the 2006 Legislative Session around the corner, the Office of Ethnic Affairs invites you to our civic participation training. Learn how to get your voice heard at the state legislature on issues that impact the ethnic community.

Date & Location

- Saturday November 5, 2005
8:00 am— 3:00 pm
Holiday Inn, Salt Lake City-Downtown
999 South Main St.
Salt Lake City, UT 84111

Goal

- To encourage the civic participation of the ethnic community in the legislative process through education and dialogue.

What is Civic Participation?

- Civic participation involves individual and/or collective action in support of or against issues that affect your community. It is important to be informed and attentive to public issues.

What's in it for You ?

- This training will provide valuable information about the legislative system and strategies on how to participate in the legislative process. You will have the opportunity to discuss legislative issues, exchange information and concerns with members of the ethnic community.
